English lyrics by Wendy Ulrich

ANTONIN DVORAK, 1841-1904

Do you know, lit - tle one, Heav'n-ly Par - ents dear Called your name,
 Have you known, lit - tle one, Things I can - not guess, gol - den trees,
 Do you know, lit - tle one, I was there with you When you dreamed, held you close, In a world still near. Though you're now in my arms, streets of glass, Fields of no - ble - ness? And the sky when night falls - when you danced, I was dream - ing too. When the day came to choose

 Just be - yond my sight In your eyes glit - ter still Im - ag - es of Does its col - or change? Does the sun al - ways shine, E - ven when it
 And we took our stand Shout - ing praise, we em-braced Heav'n-ly Fa - ther's light.

rains?
plan.

Speak to me,
Tell me child,
On that day,

lit - tle one,
while you can,
lit - tle one,

Of that bless - ed place
How the birds sing there,
We both made a vow.

While your heart
How the streams
Through our faith,

still re - calls
flow with peace
through God's love,

Heav'n - ly Fa - ther's face.
In that world so fair.
We're to - ge - ther now.
